

CALIFORNIA.—The California correspondent of the New York Post gives what is called an amusing sketch of things in California. It may be amusing to readers in the United States, but was no doubt anything else to those who were the subjects of it.

"There some long faces on the part of the passengers on the arrival of the Panama at San Francisco. The steamer had come to anchor near the U. S. ship-of-war Warren. The passengers surrounded and eagerly questioned the midshipman who boarded us. When they learned from him, in answer to their anxious inquiries that the miners were averaging only ten dollars a day at the mines, and so hard was the work that most people preferred half that amount with hard labor at San Francisco, there was evidently a sad disappointment to their hopes. The wonders of Aladdin's lamps would not have satisfied the gold seekers; their expectations had been worked up to a height not easily defined, and were let down to ten dollars a day—an amount within the limits of arithmetical calculation.

It was interesting to observe the progress, for the first few days, of these adventurers. They clung to the steamer, till the good nature of the captain and the fresh provisions of the ship were exhausted together. They finally dispersed, most of them going to the mines, with their salt pork, tin kettles, tools, and India rubber contrivances. The parson, who had each Sunday during the voyage, read to us the service, and preached against this world and its lusts, was off to the mines with tin and shovel. A sober, staid, and smooth-faced man, that had conducted himself like a saint on board the ship was to be seen, much to the surprise of all, dealing cards at the faro table, at the Parker Hotel. The politicians—Hon. Messrs. T. Butler King of Georgia and Gwyn of Louisiana—were playing their parts, and delivering themselves of vague generalities at the political gatherings in the public square of San Francisco."

THE PRESIDENT'S TOUR.—The Baltimore American of Friday says:

The President of the United States reached this city yesterday afternoon in the cars from Washington. He was greeted on his arrival at Mount Airy depot by a large number of citizens, with many of whom he exchanged salutations. He proceeded immediately in a carriage to Barnum's City Hotel, where a great crowd of persons were waiting to see him, being introduced to the assembly, he made a brief address, expressing great pleasure at his warm reception, and promising on his return, to remain a day or two in the city, where he would be glad to take his fellow-citizens by the hand.

The President will continue his journey this morning, going to York and Lancaster by the Susquehanna Railroad.

SINGULAR OCCURRENCE.—A carriage driver named Phillip Mott, was yesterday afternoon driving a barouche with four ladies in it, up Penn st., when he arrived nearly opposite McFadden's warehouse a loud explosion was heard, and the horses and carriage were very much startled, almost all the hair being burnt off the poor animals. Some heads in human shape, as is supposed, placed a large quantity of powder in the street, and carried a train to some secret place where they applied fire to it when the carriage was passing. Neither the ladies nor the driver were injured, nor did the horses, although suffering great pain, run off.—Pittsburg Gazette, 4th inst.

A GALLANT JEW.—In the ranks of the Hungarian army, fighting for their Jewish, says the Jewish Chronicle, is a Jewish officer of high merit, M. Danneberg, who had served under the Americans in the Mexican wars; but no sooner did he hear of the struggle against oppression in his native country, (Hungary) than he proceeded from New York to Bremen, and thence to the scene of war, where he is now earning golden laurels.

A Louisiana planter and physician, states in a letter that he thinks it probable that the cholera has destroyed one-tenth of the slaves of that State.

A kind heart is the fountain of pity.

OBITUARY.

DIED on the 13th inst., of consumption Mrs. ANN SOPHIA MUNDY, wife of Col. L. H. Mundy. The deceased was born June 14, 1800. She entered early upon the marriage relation, in which particular sphere, the qualities of her heart and mind seemed to have been concentrated. As a wife, she was affectionate and faithful; as a mother, devoted to her children; as a friend, affable and kind. In her death her husband has lost a faithful wife, her children a fond and devoted mother, her friends, a kind and sympathetic neighbor. Early in life she joined the Baptist Church at Gilgal, and was ever afterwards an acceptable member. During her afflictions, which were of many months duration, the writer (who was a daily visitor) has never seen exhibited, such calm and patient suffering; not a murmur escaped her lips, as to the dispensation of providence. Surely none but a Christian could bear with such fortitude and lamb like meekness, the tortures of relentless disease. On being asked if she was willing to die, she replied, "that I am a poor sinner, but have given up the world, and my trust is in God." The day before her death, when her family and friends were assembled around her bedside weeping on account of her sufferings, she told her family, to weep for her, but to put their trust in God who would never forsake them; and that he would guide them through life—also, that they must prepare to meet her in heaven, where she had a hope of being at rest. During the affecting scene, when all were in distress, she alone was calm. She has left a husband and children, (three daughters,) to mourn their irreparable loss, but it is a sweet consolation for them to know that their loss is her eternal gain.

DIED at the residence of Mrs. Elm, in this District, on the 30th of June, after a distressing illness of seven weeks, CONNELL GOWDER, only child of the late Charles G. and Parrie Garrett, in the 16th Month of her age.

Unrelenting death! again hast thou unerring shalt be hurried, and thy cold hand laid just from a widowed mother's bosom; the only living image of her deceased husband. Grieve not mother for thy lost one. Such is the common lot of all; but console thyself with the confident assurance, that an all-wise and merciful Creator has removed thy darling babe from a world of trials and great afflictions, to one of endless bliss.

DIED at his residence on the 6th instant, of Paralysis, MR. RICHARD COLLEMAN, in the sixty-third year of his age.

Mr. Coleman died as he had lived, a private citizen—illustrating throughout an exemplary life, the duties and virtues of a private station. Unostentatious in his manners, and unassuming in his desires, he sought neither popular favor nor public office.

Happily prepared by his position, and his intelligence, his experience, and his judgment, his good conduct and his love of justice he was the impartial arbiter in the difficulties of his neighbors. Fair and honorable in his intercourse with men; punctual in his engagement and just in fulfilling his obligations, he was fitted in no ordinary degree to give the advice suited to remove the disquietudes that arise in neighborhoods and to prevent the quarrels and lawsuits that they are apt to create. Blessed are the peace makers, for they shall be called the children of God.

In the year 1830 or 1831, he put on Christ by Baptism, and putting his heart into his duty, he engaged with liberality and diligence in the exertion of a meeting house, for the Pine Pleasant Church, of which he became a member at its constitution 1831. Of this church he continued his faithful and zealous membership, illustrating the Christian virtues and principles of the Gospel of his master, and adorning the doctrine of God his Saviour.

The surviving family of this good man, his church and the community of which he was an ornament and a benefactor, will, with unaffected grief, mourn his loss. But though dead, he yet speaketh in the rich legacy of his excellent character—the character of an honest man and an exemplary Christian. "Let me die the death of the Righteous, and let my last end be like his."

Jew David.

With regard to the efficacy of JEW DAVID'S, or the HEBREW PLASTERS, nothing need be said, as they carry with them their own recommendation, and the price being so remarkably low, is a sufficient inducement for those afflicted to give them a trial. The agent's confident that by the great and increasing demand for these Plasters, the popularity which they have obtained solely by their own merits, and the universal satisfaction which they have given, that they are decidedly superior to any other in use. Real Estate for Sale.

THE Subscriber offers for Sale the GHEROKE POND PLACE. It is situated, eight miles from Hamburg, on the main Road to Edgefield C. H. The Tract is Pine Land of superior quality, and contains about seven hundred acres. It is at this time in a fine state of progressive improvement, and is susceptible of the highest degree of cultivation. The outlet and range for stock is excellent, and the healthfulness of the place is unsurpassed.

These advantages, and its nearness to market makes it a truly desirable place. To an approved purchaser the terms will be accommodating.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

Newberry Sentinel.

THE undersigned proposes to publish, in the village of Newberry, S. C., a Weekly Newspaper, to be called the "NEWBERRY SENTINEL," as soon as sufficient encouragement has been given to the enterprise.

THE SENTINEL will be a political journal—a firm advocate, though not a blind adherent of the Democratic party; intended mainly, however, to impart such Political Intelligence as may be deemed worthy of the attention of the community. It will also embrace Agricultural and Educational interests, Foreign and Domestic Intelligence, Rail Road Statistics, the Markets, Science, Literature, &c. Ardently attached to the South and her institutions, it will carefully report, and fearlessly denounce every attempt, whenever and by whomsoever made, to disturb her peace or retard her prosperity. It shall not be made the medium of inflicting upon the public, unpleasant details of private grievances, or personal wrongs; at the same time the calm, dignified discussion of all subjects that come properly within sphere of such a journal, having for its object the development of truth, will be freely admitted into its columns. In a word the undersigned will endeavor to make the Sentinel an acceptable visitor to the counting-house and the Parlor, to the Politician and the Farmer, to the Mechanic and the man of leisure.

TERMS.—The Sentinel will be printed upon a super royal sheet, at Two Dollars a year, in advance; or Two Dollars and Fifty Cents at the expiration of three months.
